

Lincoln

Mrs Logan told me tonight (1/23 '95) certain interesting things about L. & woman & his wife. Mrs Edwards does not think Douglas ever courted Mr & any more than a number of other yuppy men who surrounded her. She was so bright and witty that she had a large following - Mrs . An old resident says that it seems to her that Mrs Lincoln must have had almost prophetic insight - to have chosen Lincoln who was the most abandoned & ungainly man in her train and totally lacking in politics. (This we think would support this) Remark of man who said in more said In any human eye such a dime light.
