My dear Miss Fairbell:

Thanks for yours of the 12th (the day "we and Julius Caesar" were born).

The prospect is that I shall be in N.Y. about Sept. 20th. I shall write you in a couple times. I can probably get a look at Mr. Lincoln's bank account in the old Riggs Bank at Washington. The present Riggs Natl. Bk. people are my friends and President Hoover is also. I want a look at the Treasury books details of the White House account. They for they have given me only totals - which are not of much use. I shall go to Washington after seeing you - and then to Lexington, Ky. where I think something may be gathered from the story of Mrs. L's father's estate. Went to Springfield, where the Marine Bank has more details.

Yours faithfully

E. Prussing.

Miss Anna M. Fairbell.
New York.
