Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Might we again have your very helpful assistance regarding some information desired by one of our correspondents?

This inquirer is in search of the quotation in which Richard Grant White pronounced Lincoln's Gettysburg Address the purest English extant.

We are hoping that sometime you may have run across this passage and will be able to direct us to the book or magazine where it may be secured.

We shall deeply appreciate anything you may be able to do for us concerning this point; and, at the same time, we wish to take this opportunity to thank you for the details of Lincoln's will which you sent us several months ago in answer to a query.

For your convenience we are enclosing a postage prepaid return envelope.

Very truly yours,

P. F. COLLIER AND SON COMPANY
