ALLEGHENY IS CHARITABLE

Just to Encourage the Ladies From Grove City

HAPPY THE GAME

Allegany Shows Her Unselfishness
By Refusing to Score While She
Last week's football game with Grove City was a thrilling battle, but the outcome was a surprise to many. The game was played for the first time in so many years, and the result was a decided victory for Allegheny College, 14 to 0.

One of the features of the college at Allegheny is its educational work, both general and professional. The college has a long and illustrious history, dating back to 1837, when it was founded as a school for the education of the American Indian.

The trustees must now begin new programs and projects to ensure the continued growth and development of the college. The college is committed to providing a高质量 education to all students, regardless of their background or financial situation.

They are all men who have dedicated their lives to education and the betterment of the community. Their contributions to Allegheny College and the larger community cannot be overstated.

In addition to its educational programs, the college is also committed to community service and outreach. It has a long history of providing educational opportunities to those who might not otherwise have access to higher education.

In conclusion, Allegheny College is a vibrant and dynamic institution that is committed to providing a quality education to all students. Its history and tradition are a testament to its commitment to excellence and service, and its future is bright with possibilities.

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

Allegeny is a small but diverse community, with a wide range of interests and backgrounds. We encourage all students to become involved in the college community, whether through academic programs, community service, or other extracurricular activities.

The college has a number of clubs and organizations, including the Johnson Coffee Club, which is one of the oldest and most prestigious on campus. The club was founded in 1867 and is still active today, with members who range in age from undergraduate to alumni.

The Johnson Coffee Club is a place where students can come together to discuss a variety of topics, from academic work to life outside of college. It is a place where students can socialize, build relationships, and gain a deeper understanding of the world around them.

Furthermore, the college is committed to providing opportunities for students to engage in research and creative work. The college has a number of research centers and institutes, including the Center for the Study of the American Indian, which is dedicated to the study of the history and culture of the American Indian.

In conclusion, Allegheny College is a community that is committed to providing a quality education to all students, regardless of their background or financial situation. Its history and tradition are a testament to its commitment to excellence and service, and its future is bright with possibilities.

WEEK OF PRAYER.

HELPFUL, Beneficial Meetings Contested Through the Week.

The meetings held during the week just past have been well attended. There were held field meetings of the two Christian Associations, which held, besides their regular services, joint meetings on Sunday, November 6, Wednesday, and Saturday. The Sunday service was in charge of Doctor Lockwood, whose earnest call was of much practical value to young Christians. Dr. Crawford led the Wednesday evening service. The subject was "Duty and Christian Living" and a large number of students spoke on this uplifting topic. Dr. Crawford's meetings are always full of inspiration. Miss Strong, the T. W. G. A. state secretary, gave the Saturday meeting and talked most helpfully on the topic "Steps.

The general subject for the week was "The Light," and all the meetings brought out the ways in which Christ may be light in this world to others to Christ.
