1905-05-11

The Campus: May 11, 1905

_The Campus_
W. & J. DEBATERS WERE VICTORIOUS
In One of the Greatest Debates Ever Had at Allegheny.

DECISION WAS VERY CLOSE.

Our Boys Lost But It Was a Glorious Defeat—The Contest Was Nearly Even.

The debate between Allegheny and Washington and Jefferson Colleges was held on April 25th. The decision was in favor of Allegheny.

The debate was on the question of whether the adoption of adequate compulsory laboratory laws is consistent with the best interests of the nation. The affirmative argument was presented by Messrs. D. M. Sturtevant, Swanson, and H. Jackson, who treated the subject a little more thoroughly than the negative side, which was presented by Messrs. D. Jones, Small, and M. Harper.

The affirmative argument was especially clear, coherent, and convincing. Much of its unanswerable force was due to its remarkable composition. As attractive features of the argument we may mention:

1. The material underlying his own position was presented with absolute thoroughness. Mr. Bruce S. Wright's Oration, "The Heroic in the Common-Place," was especially clear, coherent and impressive.

2. His presentation of the philosophical and ethical views of the Thessalian plain with a view of the fact that it

3. The decision was rendered by three judges, two of whom were judges of the Oratorical Association.

4. The judges rendered the decision that the affirmative had the affirmative, and Messrs. D. M. Sturtevant, Swanson, and H. Jackson, who treated the subject a little more thoroughly than the negative side, which was presented by Messrs. D. Jones, Small, and M. Harper.

The debate was on the question of whether the adoption of adequate compulsory laboratory laws is consistent with the best interests of the nation. The affirmative argument was presented by Messrs. D. M. Sturtevant, Swanson, and H. Jackson, who treated the subject a little more thoroughly than the negative side, which was presented by Messrs. D. Jones, Small, and M. Harper.

The affirmative argument was especially clear, coherent, and convincing. Much of its unanswerable force was due to its remarkable composition. As attractive features of the argument we may mention:

1. The material underlying his own position was presented with absolute thoroughness. Mr. Bruce S. Wright's Oration, "The Heroic in the Common-Place," was especially clear, coherent and impressive.

2. His presentation of the philosophical and ethical views of the Thessalian plain with a view of the fact that it

3. The decision was rendered by three judges, two of whom were judges of the Oratorical Association.

4. The judges rendered the decision that the affirmative had the affirmative, and Messrs. D. M. Sturtevant, Swanson, and H. Jackson, who treated the subject a little more thoroughly than the negative side, which was presented by Messrs. D. Jones, Small, and M. Harper.

The debate was on the question of whether the adoption of adequate compulsory laboratory laws is consistent with the best interests of the nation. The affirmative argument was presented by Messrs. D. M. Sturtevant, Swanson, and H. Jackson, who treated the subject a little more thoroughly than the negative side, which was presented by Messrs. D. Jones, Small, and M. Harper.

The affirmative argument was especially clear, coherent, and convincing. Much of its unanswerable force was due to its remarkable composition. As attractive features of the argument we may mention:

1. The material underlying his own position was presented with absolute thoroughness. Mr. Bruce S. Wright's Oration, "The Heroic in the Common-Place," was especially clear, coherent and impressive.

2. His presentation of the philosophical and ethical views of the Thessalian plain with a view of the fact that it

3. The decision was rendered by three judges, two of whom were judges of the Oratorical Association.

4. The judges rendered the decision that the affirmative had the affirmative, and Messrs. D. M. Sturtevant, Swanson, and H. Jackson, who treated the subject a little more thoroughly than the negative side, which was presented by Messrs. D. Jones, Small, and M. Harper.

The debate was on the question of whether the adoption of adequate compulsory laboratory laws is consistent with the best interests of the nation. The affirmative argument was presented by Messrs. D. M. Sturtevant, Swanson, and H. Jackson, who treated the subject a little more thoroughly than the negative side, which was presented by Messrs. D. Jones, Small, and M. Harper.

The affirmative argument was especially clear, coherent, and convincing. Much of its unanswerable force was due to its remarkable composition. As attractive features of the argument we may mention:

1. The material underlying his own position was presented with absolute thoroughness. Mr. Bruce S. Wright's Oration, "The Heroic in the Common-Place," was especially clear, coherent and impressive.

2. His presentation of the philosophical and ethical views of the Thessalian plain with a view of the fact that it

3. The decision was rendered by three judges, two of whom were judges of the Oratorical Association.

4. The judges rendered the decision that the affirmative had the affirmative, and Messrs. D. M. Sturtevant, Swanson, and H. Jackson, who treated the subject a little more thoroughly than the negative side, which was presented by Messrs. D. Jones, Small, and M. Harper.

The debate was on the question of whether the adoption of adequate compulsory laboratory laws is consistent with the best interests of the nation. The affirmative argument was presented by Messrs. D. M. Sturtevant, Swanson, and H. Jackson, who treated the subject a little more thoroughly than the negative side, which was presented by Messrs. D. Jones, Small, and M. Harper.

The affirmative argument was especially clear, coherent, and convincing. Much of its unanswerable force was due to its remarkable composition. As attractive features of the argument we may mention:

1. The material underlying his own position was presented with absolute thoroughness. Mr. Bruce S. Wright's Oration, "The Heroic in the Common-Place," was especially clear, coherent and impressive.

2. His presentation of the philosophical and ethical views of the Thessalian plain with a view of the fact that it

3. The decision was rendered by three judges, two of whom were judges of the Oratorical Association.

4. The judges rendered the decision that the affirmative had the affirmative, and Messrs. D. M. Sturtevant, Swanson, and H. Jackson, who treated the subject a little more thoroughly than the negative side, which was presented by Messrs. D. Jones, Small, and M. Harper.
The path-way of the average college of March, 1879.

October

religious

ers until an explicit order is re-

Subscribers are requested to inform average of the slain enemy passes into the and it is the fighting against dif-that he can kill him, thinks to in-

There is a vague belief among lege life will either make him or and lose, but unless there were

If he can kill him, thinks to inand it is the overthrowed, every period of poverty ward of achievement. And strength’’ in the pathway which ment. And herein lies the great

The path-way of the average college student is not steeped with stress. In fact there is enough of ease in the ways of college life to give our minds a sense of security. It is this fact that has led us to the conclusion, “College life will either make or break him.”

It is in this spirit that we must fight and live, but unless there were the possibility of losing there would be no reason to fight, and it is the fighting against difficulties which develops the strength of the college man.

There is a vague belief among younger people that the strength of the college man lies in the ability to pass into the college chair. Yarrow has expressed this fact in the following verse:

The Wild Tar, when he appears, A man who is young and able to fight. If he can tell him, thanks to to his beauty, his words and his spirit.

The “Wild Tar” simply put is to be picture-perfect form, his vague feel of the joy of youth. There is no question of ability or value from the concurrent to the conqueror. The follower is merely the agent of the leader, the college man is everywhere.

It needs to be burned into the soul of the student that every form of discipline thrown off, every period of poverty to which we must be stoical, and overcome is as much in our favor as in his.

The greatest pleasures of life come from the knowledge of what you can do. Men who have said, “I can do it all, I can do anything I please” is everywhere.

West, Henry D. Directive of the Warren, Pa., Y. M. C. A., will lead the Men’s Meeting. The subject under discussion at the Mission Study Class was “Senior Six” and was chosen by the faculty. Those chosen are as follows:

- La Verne University, Morgantown, Slipspery Rock.
- Allegheny 12.
- University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh.
- Old Allegheny is again in line—and so are we with the most up-to-date line of Fine Leather Goods to be found in the city. We invite the student to inspect one of our latest lines, and to make his choice of quality, value and price.
Smith's Toggery

That's the Place Where College Boys

Clothing and Furnishings, and they do buy them there.

This place has been the college boy's after-call, and it is more popular than ever this season—for many reasons. First, because they are used as they like to be used; because we make a speciality of Clothing and Furnishings for Men and College Men; because we have extra style if you want it.

Here is what we've done since college closed last fall term. We've taken the second floor of the block and remodeled it, and made one of our stores a clothing store. It's just as a clothing store as it can be in any town, and this improvement gives us four times the room that we had last term. We have four times the stock of clothing and furnishings that we had.

W. & J. ALLEGHENY I.

Mitinger Again Pitched Winning Ball.

Rear. ALLEGHENY II.

In Practice Game.

Allegheny Students

Will Do Well

To investigate our method of giving students a Business Education, and at the same time assist them to earn enough money to pay their college expenses.

LEON KEYSTONE F.

MEADVILLE, PA.

Spalding's Official Athletic Almanac

For 1905

Edited by J. B. BULLIVAN

Locusts and Bees. Education.

St. Louis. Chicago. New York, N. Y.

A. KREUER.

Philadelphia.

The College Florist

Store, Corner Market and Centre St.,

Forecast for the Phi Delta, George, Horn and Sigs the former won 9 to 4. The athletic performances of the Phi Delta and Phi Gam team, which had not lost, a game in three months by selling views, than one year ago, the Phi Gam team, has been systematically recorded.

Copyright 1905 By

Hart Schaffner & Marx

The greatest assortment of Suits and Raincoats ever seen in Meadville. Great purchases of Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothing, and many other goods also make.

There's no use of talking so much about it to you in person, come in and see what we've got.

Any of the fellows will tell you about us, and the kind of goods we have. We'll be glad to meet you here.

S. J. SPURR, Manager.

The Place of a Lifetime.

Do This Now or Have a Nobby Hair Cut in a Short Time at Perry's.

Ask the old Students what the difference is.

TORDELL.

Home-Made Chocolates, Fruits and Fine Package Goods

CHERRY STREET.

Send any sample for our approval.

HERBERT VAN PATTON

191 Cherry St., Meadville, Pa.

For 'Correct Clothes' go to MENDEL'S.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY

SCHOOL OF LAW

Meadville, Pa.

The Up-to-date Tailor, BAY VOGQ BLOCK, CHESTNUT STREET.

M. J. ROBINSON, Corner Water and Arch Streets, GROCER.

Schumacher Bros. Flack Model.

White House Coffee.

Corner State and 4th Sts. Built from.

Angels Food Cake.
The medico-chirurgical college

A proposition toToe supply. a.

The Medico-Chirurgical College

A proposItion to cover supply.

The medico-chirurgical college

A proposition to cover supply

Now is the time to take notice

Our large and varied assortment of fashionables, Spring suits and topcoats in all the latest fabrics and designs. The careful attention to minute detail of cut and finish that distinguishes all have made them the most desirable ready-to-wear garments in the land and the type are now few enough to satisfy any reasonable man. Whether your price is $6.00 or $50 depends upon your choice of material and living—whatever you select you may be sure of getting the best value for your money. Each garment is made with the same painstaking attention to style and fit. Come and see for yourself.

KUPPENERMEHR "ER-ETH" AND SNELENIGER CLOTHES

M. OHLMAN & SON

LAYBACK FOLLOW

For style turnouts go to

CRAWFORD JOURNAL PUB. CO

PROVINCIAL

LIVERY, BOARDING

AND SALES

Corner Market and Center Sts.

Erie Telephone, 106

MEADVILLE, PA.

J. A. RUPERT

DOCTOR

OF DENTAL SURGERY

216 Chestnut Street, Phone 322-L.

Hours-10 to 12, 1:15 to 4.

At the Enterprise

You will find boundless, new, exclusive ideas in the elec-

May 2nd and 3rd

SPRING MILLER

214 Chestnut Street.

MEADVILLE, PA.

JULIUS STAFF, Jr.

Merchant Tailor,

405 Market St., Meadville.

Cleaning, Tailoring and Pressing.

"Now" Phone 161.

GEORGE R. PRATT

MANUFACTURING

AND\39; REPAIRING

PHOTOGRAPHER.

208 Chestnut Street, Meadville.

MEADVILLE, PA.

KEPLER HOTEL

MEADVILLE, PA.

Writers Wanted

Cable for local news items and original articles. Address:

John T. Mead, Mead-

Let's have better Advertisings and less bad.

KEILBY & WORCOSTER

Office Hours: 9 to 12 and 1 to 4.

DR. C. C. HILL

Ely, Eau, hour and Thread.

Near Diamond Square, Meadville, Pa.

GLASSES ADJUSTED.

The Medico-Chirurgical College

PHILADELPHIA.

DEPARTMENT OF MEDICINE.

Founded 1815, the Medico-Chirurgical College of Philadelphia is one of the oldest and most respected medical schools in the United States. The College has graduated over 20,000 medical students, including many prominent physicians and scientists. The College offers undergraduate, graduate, and continuing education programs in medicine, dentistry, and various other health-related fields.

The College is located in the heart of Philadelphia, on a beautiful campus adjacent to the University of Pennsylvania. The campus includes state-of-the-art classrooms, laboratories, and clinical facilities.

The Medico-Chirurgical College is committed to providing a high-quality education and training for future leaders in the field of medicine. The College is accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education (LCME) and is a member of the Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC).

For more information on the Medico-Chirurgical College, please visit their website at medchirurg.com.