In One of the Greatest Debates Ever Heard at Allegheny.

1. The debate between Allegheny and Washington and Jefferson College was held in Fort Memorial Chapel, Wednesday, May 15th at 8 p.m., President Crawford presided. Hon. Jesse B. Fisher, of Amsterdam, N. Y., Rev. W. Hayes, D. D., of Grove City, Pa. and Prof. W. E. Hatley, of Sharon, Pa., served as judges. A large and responsive audience was in attendance.

The purpose of the debate was to ascertain the adequacy of constitutional amendments, proposed. That courts should be established in the United States for the compulsory employment and employed.

That the faculty officially ratify this acceptance.

That the affirmative argument was especially clear, coherent and logically sound. Much of the unclassified form was due to the remarkable compactness. As attractive literature could have failed to get a picture in his own mind of the framework upon which the argument was built. The delivery of the affirmative speakers may be characterized as direct, forceful, noetic. The negative side treated the subject a little more conceptually and was notable in keeping the force of the opinions of the affirmative. They thus produced an excellent negative argument. They spoke with vigor and animation.

The occasion is rare when one has the opportunity of listening to a more
