

Pittsford, Conn.,

March 23, 1916.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,

132 East 19th Street, N. Y.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

The extreme severe winter weather has often kept me in this house, that I have delayed making announcement of my visit to N. Y. until the weather conditions would improve, but they still hold us rigid and rigid as ever - snow and ice being all of two feet deep on a level. I venture to state, however, that I shall try to see you on the 4th day of April, Tuesday. Perhaps I have never informed you that I am leaving my South Green; am a retired farmer

