

August 24, 1923

Mr. Charles T. White,
277 Decatur St.,
Brooklyn, N.Y.

My dear Mr. White:

It was friendly of you to call my attention to the slip I made in my American Magazine article. I am sorry that I cannot charge it to the stenographer. I went back to my certified copy of the Springfield document and found it there just as you say "M. B." though what the M. B. Church is, I do not know. Methodist Brethren?

I have not heard from the Springfield M.E. people yet, but I probably shall as you prophesy.

If you catch me slipping again, I shall be grateful for correction.

Another reason I have for thanking you for writing me is that I had been intending for a long time to order your book, "Lincoln and Prohibition" but neglected it. I put the order in as soon as I read your letter, and I will be writing you about it later. I have no idea, though, that it will be because I have found you tripping.

Very truly yours,

Digital Image, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.