Dear Mr. Tausek:

Thank you for the copy of your excellent review of "Why Was Lincoln Murdered." It ought to help prevent the spread of Mr. Eisenschiml's mischievous inferences. His method may do for detective fiction but certainly not for serious history, particularly in a case so tragic and so complicated as that of Lincoln's assassination and what followed.

Thank you for the good words you say for my review in The Herald Tribune.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Joseph Tausek
