Miss. Ida M. Tarbell.
Dear Miss. Tarbell.

Inclosed you will please find my story of my brother meeting Lincoln out in Ill. in his young manhood days. The 29 chapters of my brother's personal experie-ces during his three years service in the civil war in the Union Army written by himself are very interesting. I have them in my possession,

And wonder if they
 with this story of Lincoln would make a book of interest & instruction for the public, and I wonder what publishers would be interested enough to publish it on a percentage basis. Any suggestion or advice from you would be very much appreciated.

Tom lecture last Tuesday at the Junior High School was certainly a fine resume of the wonderful character of Lincoln. My father in-law Mr. Thomas Quirk
