My dear Miss Farbell:

May I take the liberty of asking you to answer a question that has long been a source of trouble to me? It has to do with the quotation—"You may fool some of the people some of the time," etc., attributed to Lincoln.

One writer—Stephenson, I think—cites me of your books as authority, but his citation is so vague that I am unable to locate it.
Would you be so kind as to inform me as to where and the book of yours which contains the reference. I should appreciate your response.

Respectfully & Sincerely,

Joseph Pausch

P.S. If you have not seen my little book - The True Story of the Gettysburg Address - I thought I'd send it to you.

Yes, Mr. Stein?
