

February 3, 1927.

Dear Mrs. Wing:

Thank you for letting me see Dr. Upham's letter. I am returning it. You should keep it in your files.

I was a little shocked to learn that the manuscripts had not been returned as I wrote you they would be in November. There was a little misunderstanding on the part of my secretary. They are going to you at once by registered parcel post. Kindly let me know when you have them.

Macmillan expects to have our little book out in ten days or so.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. H. E. Wing,
Rowayton,
Conn.
