Dear Edna:

Rowlington

Don't worry about Rollinson⁹ spreading his ministerpretations. I am taking your correspondence out to Meadville and if I hear any reverberations, which I doubt, I will take care of them. I will try to find out discreetly, too, how campaigning for a candidate is done. If there is anything in particular you want me to check on let me know. I shall not be going until Sunday night, possibly Monday night.

Do you suppose you could stir Will Beazell to look up the pamphlet I lent him on "Books Lincoln Read." It is a limited edition as I understand it and I would not like to lose it.

Affectionately
