Dear Dr. Warren:

This is a prompt summing up of the case of Grandfather Hanks that you report in #192 of Lincoln Lore. You have put your theory into a clear, reasonable, understandable form, and I have a fairly strong conviction that one of these days the documentary evidence, which will clinch the matter that Nancy Hanks' father was James Hanks, will turn up. It is fine work.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to you.

Very sincerely
