Dear Miss Worthington:

Thank you for your letter. As soon as I feel up to it which ought to be very soon I will be glad to have that talk with you, particularly since you have had the courage to go on your own. You say you hope to be open by the first of March. So perhaps we better put off conversation until after that.

I suppose you follow the radio programs, if so you saw my name down as a speaker at the Lincoln Fellowship Luncheon - yesterday, the twelfth. I want you to know that I was not there and as a matter of fact I refused some three or four weeks ago to speak for them. The reason I gave was that I had the engagement with you and that I did not think it fair to accept a non-pay engagement. In spite of that and of course without my knowledge they used my name in announcing their program. Also, they put me down as President which I am not, though I am what they call an Honorary, which is another word for Dummy. I wanted you to understand in case you had noticed the program.

With all good wishes

Very sincerely yours

Miss Dorothy Worthington
