Dear Mr. Wakefield:

How did your Lincoln meeting come out? I shall be interested to know.

And here is a suggestion. It is, that the Association start at once a scrap book which will include, not everything that is written on Lincoln by any means, but selected and classified comments. For instance, the present comments on Ex-governor Smith's quotation on Lincoln's tariff views, would be well worth saving. Are you doing anything about this?

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Sherman D. Wakefield
