

Near Redding, Conn.
May 21st - 1924.

My dear Miss Tarbell,

Mr. String wants me to say that the Lincoln
manuscripts have been returned from the Methodist Book Concern.
But he is just recovering from a severe bilious attack and would like to look them over before forwarding them to you.
He hopes to be able to do this within the next two or three days.

Very sincerely yours,
(Mrs. H. E.) Mary B. String.