

"An octogranium"

July 27 - "next Tuesday" if it is present will be the most famous day in the history of Litchfield. 3 yrs ago almost a hundred men
-- incamped at the site of the Hall -- a handful of stalwart veterans have returned to their old homes on our hill sides by the "The Burns Reception" 2 cols my & shirley's visit until July 18, 1888

July 19 - Published very Sunday by
A. B. Shapman &

Ad. Gen. Editorial page headed L - m -

George A. Hickey Editor

Digital Image, 2011. The Ira M. Turnbull Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College - Pellier Library