Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Pardon us for again troubling you in relation to the caption or subject of your remarks at the forthcoming dinner of this Society, February twelfth.

Ma Clure's people suggested the propriety of our calling telephone 1519-18th St. or we should not have dared disturb you in your sanctum. We are, however, in doubt as to whether the telephone correctly represented you in answering our inquiry with "Lincoln and Chicago." There is a suspicion in our minds that you may wish to make it "Lincoln at Chicago" if your intention is to refer to the Wigwam, the Lincoln-Douglas Discussion, etc. Will you kindly give us in a line your wishes in this matter and very much oblige,

Yours respectfully,

President.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,

New York.
