Miss McIntire,
G. Macmillan Co.,
New York

Dear Miss McIntire:

For years I have been writing to folks who knew or saw Abraham Lincoln. I have hundreds of letters from men and women in all parts of the country telling of some incident in their life that came in contact with that of Abraham These letters I am carefully preserving so that future generations might have all the first hand information it is possible to obtain.

Do you know of any one who remembered Mr. Lincoln in the flesh?
If so, I would be obliged to you for their name and address.
I have heard on two or three occasions Edgar White Burdick give his reading of your "Mr. Lincoln" on the radio. Recently received a very interesting letter from Mr. Burdick.

I have before me a copy of Collier's for Feb 14, 1931, containing your article "On Mr. Lincoln's Tomb". Enjoyed it very much.

Would it be asking too much to have you give me a list of your Lincoln books and articles?

Can the books be procured thru Macmillans?

Thanking you for any information which you can give me or for any courtesy which you might extend to me, and with every good wish, I am yours sincerely,

Howard H. Terry
