1931-05-12

Letter: Howard K. Terry to Ida M. Tarbell, May 12, 1931

Terry, Howard K.

http://hdl.handle.net/10456/32556

The copyright owner of this item is unknown. It is the responsibility of the researcher to identify and satisfy the holders of all copyrights.

All materials in the Allegheny College DSpace Repository are subject to college policies and Title 17 of the U.S. Code.
Dustbin, Philadelphia
May 12, 1931

Miss McDonald,
Godwin Close Co.
New York

Dear Ma'am:

For years I have been writing to folks who knew or saw Abraham Lincoln. I have hundreds of letters from men and women in all parts of the country telling of some incident in their life as it came in contact with that of Abraham

These letters I am carefully preserving so that posterity might have all the facts from first-hand information.

Do you know of any one who remembered Mr. Lincoln in the flesh?

If so, I would be obliged to you for their name and address.
I have heard on two or three occasions
Edgar White Burdell give his reading of your "Mr. Lincoln's Home on the Radio. Recently received a very interesting letter from Dr. Burdell.

I have been unable to copy a copy of Collier's for Feb 19, 1931, containing your article "Mr. Lincoln's Home" Enjoyed it very much.

Would it be asking too much to have you give me a list of your Lincoln books and articles?
Can the books be procured thru Macmillans?

Thanking you for any information which you can give me or for any courtesy which you might extend to me, and with every good wish.
I am Yours sincerely,
Howard R. Terry
9528 University St.