Dear Mr. Wilson:

I have your note with the good news that you are going to publish Lamon's Life of Lincoln along with a monograph and whatever extra material of value you can secure.

I am sorry I cannot put you in touch with Dorothy Lamon. ~~I should think~~ your best chance would be to get in touch with McClurg of Chicago. They published the book and there must be someone connected with the present firm that would be able to tell you whether she is living or dead and give you a clue to finding her address.

As I say I am sorry I cannot help your myself. Be sure I shall be glad to see the results of your work.

Very sincerely

Mr. Rufus Rockwell Wilson
