Dear Mr. Wilson:

I have your note of March Ninth, asking where you might secure a print of the 1854 photograph of Lincoln reproduced in the February Cosmopolitan. If you will write to Mr. W. L. Brunyate, 605 Broad Street, Newark, N. J., I think he will send you a copy if you tell him I suggested it.

I am glad you are interested in the picture. It has a history which I am trying to unravel.

Faithfully
