

papers into the New England Historic Genealogical Society. Possibly you know that Mr. Hanks, the nephew of Mrs. Hitchcock has had a good professional genealogist go over the Massachusetts branch and verify the dates from original records, putting the first four generations into genealogical shape to make them acceptable to the New Eng. Hist. Genealogical Register. They will be published in the January issue. Thus the Mass. branch will be eliminated.
Mr. Rudolph's Pennsylvania papers ought to follow, and then the Maryland branch, and leave the Virginia field clear.

Mrs. Rudolph tells me that you are giving your MSS. to Lafayette College. Will that meantime I like to hear from her and hope that the future holds a meeting.

Sincerely yours,
