Dear Miss Tarbell:

I have secured Miss Louise Elliott, one of my pupils who is specializing in history, to look into the records for you here at Harrisonburg. She is willing to do the work for 60 cents an hour. Please let me know whether this arrangement is satisfactory to you.

I hope that you and your sister were able to visit Natural Bridge and Weyer's Cave, and that you are now enjoying the interesting associations of the Blue Grass State.

With kindest regards and best wishes, I remain,

Yours very truly,

John W. Wayland
