February 14, 1934

Dear Mr. Townsend:

That was a thoroughly satisfactory article on Lincoln and Prohibition which you contributed to the last Atlantic. I was most glad to read it.

I wonder if you would be interested in adding to your notes the enclosed on the records of the Pigeon Creek Church. They had decided to build a new church and the enclosed was circulated. Whiskey was included in the produce welcomed, but nobody is down for whiskey. Thought it might amuse you.

Very sincerely