Mrs. Henry E. Wing
Rowayton, Conn.

Dear Mrs. Wing:

I am just back from some five months abroad and find that the articles and manuscripts which I expected to return to you before I sailed are still here. Shall I send them to Rowayton?

I also have Mary Livermore's book in the country, and I will try to ship that as soon as I go back.

The two articles are to be published in February - one in Collier's and the other in the Ladies' Home Journal. Macmillans will bring out the little book at about the same time.

I hope you have had a good summer. With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours
