Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York.

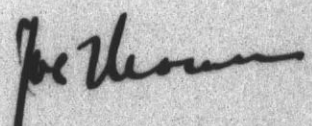

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I am confident that you will be quite happy to see what we did with your Mothers Day message.

This bulletin has a circulation of 3500 and of course, it goes throughout the entire United States.

Some time, I hope to have the privilege of greeting you, for I feel that I have known you a long time because of the fascinating two volume biography on Lincoln which I believe will be a monument in the sense that it will never be forgotten as long as the civilization as we know it, is permitted to remain.

Most sincerely,

J.C. THOMSON.
