New York City

November 10th, 1936

Miss Ida Tarbell,
120 E. 19th St.,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

You are cordially invited to attend a dinner of the Lincoln Fellowship of New York to celebrate the 73rd anniversary of the delivery of the Gettysburg Address. The dinner will be held in the Blue Room of the Hotel Lincoln, on Thursday, November 19th, at 7 P. M., at $1.50 per plate.

We expect to have prominent speakers, whose names will be announced in the press at a later date. Alice Fischer Harcourt, celebrated actress, will read the Gettysburg Address from the original manuscript loaned for the occasion by Mrs. Thomas Madigan. Selections from Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll's beautiful lecture on Lincoln will be read by his granddaughter, Mrs. Eva Ingersoll Wakefield. Mr. Gabriel Wells will display the original Lincoln-Douglas debate manuscript, the original Thirteenth Amendment to the Constitution which freed the slaves, and the arithmetic notebook which Lincoln used as a boy.

If possible, please signify your intention to attend in advance and let us know how many you intend to bring with you.

Sincerely yours,

Sherman D. Wakefield
