Dear Mr. Terry:

I have your letter of May 12th, asking if I can tell you of anyone who remembers Mr. Lincoln in the flesh. Yes, there is a woman in Hanover, Pa., who claims to have been on the platform when he made the Gettysburg address. There is being inaugurated now in Hanover an organization called the Abraham Lincoln Fellowship, which is to be composed of persons who have heard, met or known Mr. Lincoln.

If you will write to Mrs. H. O. Smith, 205 York Street, Hanover, Pa., I am sure she will give you the desired information.

I am glad you liked my story in Colliers. The Macmillan Company have published all of my books on Lincoln, excepting one published by Harpers - "In the Footsteps of the Lincoln" - the last serious piece of work I did.

Hoping the above information will be of value to you, believe me

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Howard K. Terry
