

June 7, 1926

Mrs. Henry E. Wing
Rowayton, Conn.

Dear Mrs. Wing:

MacMillan & Co. are drawing up the contract for our little book, the proofs of the second part of which I sent you the other day. I instructed them to incorporate your name so that your half of the royalties could be sent direct to you, and they ask me for your maiden name, they say it is customary to use this. I do not know what it is, will you kindly let me know as quickly as possible that I may pass it on to them?

Very sincerely yours