

December 27, 1932

My dear Mr. Young:

Thank you heartily for your note telling me that you like, "In the Footsteps of the Lincolns." I had a good time doing that book and I am always pleased when a reader finds it to his liking. It was kind of you to write me and I appreciate it.

With the best wishes for the New Year, believe me

Very truly yours

Mr. J. Oscar Young
358 Ridgewood Avenue
Newark, N. J.