me 15. - I should add this proviso to my last p.c. If you are going to submit the version of the speech as you propose to publish it to Mr. Medill and have him write a notice of it which notice you also design to publish - I think it perhaps politic to erase those sentences in the first few pages which I myself have erased - otherwise Medill will discomfit you by saying that the opening pages are too diffuse - as he said to me: and it is well to avoid this criticism especially as he may be right. We "shant" I would not change for an erroneous phrase anyway even if more classical Yours truly
H. C. Whitney
you might advise me if you propose putting it all in one number or what month
