

Feb. 1, 1923

Dr. Jerome Walker, M.D.,
258 Argyle Road,
Flatbush, Brooklyn, N.Y.

My dear Dr. Walker:

How glad I am to hear from you again, and to know that you are still interested in the life of Abraham Lincoln! Of course I remember our correspondence, and the incident that you gave me. It has always been one of my favorite Lincoln stories, and the corroboration of it which you send is most interesting.

You speak of the possibility of publishing your reminiscences of the Civil War. I should think, by all means, you ought to write them. If made quite personal with both the humor and the pathos, you ought to have at least a valuable magazine article. You certainly should use the Lincoln incident and the story of its corroboration so long after.

If you should write these, and you think that I could be of any assistance to you, I should be very glad to look the material over and possibly could advise you where it could be placed.

Have you any objection to my writing to Mr. Anderson? His note to you seemed to intimate that he had seen Mr. Lincoln on other occasions. If so, I should like to know when.

Thanking you again for your letter, believe me

Very sincerely yours,