Dear Miss Tansie:

I in reply to your letter & will say that I will be pleased to see you, next Saturday, at any hour most convenient for you.

I think, you may be certain to find me here at any time, as, while I am slowly improving in my health, I am likely to be confined to the premises for a long time.

Accord to the proposed visit from you I remain

Sincerely yours

H. E. Wing

My hand trembles so that I can scarcely hold a pen, which accounts for this scrawl.
