Dear Madam:

I had the good fortune to read your book "He Knew Lincoln". As I was raised in Urbana Ill. and have spent a great deal of time in Springfield, I know just what kind of a man your Billy Brown is.

I don't know whether you have ever heard of me, but for the last ten years I have been in Vaudeville and Musical Comedy doing rural characters. I am opening in a play in January, and in case this doesn't go over I will need a new vaudeville act. Would you let me have the rights to "He Knew Lincoln" as I would like to build an act around it. Also let me know what your terms would be.

Very Sincerely yours,

Gare Lambs Club
West 44th St. N.Y. City.
