

January 25, 1926

Mr. Dwight C. Sturges
Christian Science Monitor
Boston, Mass.

My dear Mr. Sturges:

How very kind of you to send me this impression of your Linoleum Block Print of Lincoln. It is a most interesting thing, and so different! I shall add it to my collection with very real interest.

You ask if I can give you a list of names of people interested in Lincolniana. There is none printed, so far as I know. The following names might help you, and I shall be glad at my earliest convenience to suggest some persons to whom you might write and who might be able to give you other names:

J. B. Oakleaf, Moline, Ill.

Jane Hammand, Shaler Ill.

H. W. Fay, Custodian of the Lincoln Monument, Springfield

I will try to add a few names to this list.

Thanking you heartily for your kindness in sending me this interesting print, believe me, my dear Mr. Sturges,

Sincerely yours