Mr. Judd Stewart,

120 Broadway, City.

My dear Mr* Stewart:

How about your Lincoln collection? Have you disposed of it as yet?

I am sending you a little book, published in February, which I will be pleased if you care to put it on your shelves.

I have undertaken a new piece of Lincoln work, a Boy Scout Life, and I may want to come troubling you now and then. Would you be willing to see me?

Very sincerely yours,

Can you tell me who our
