

JOHN W. STARR, JR.
323 NORTH STREET
MILLERSBURG, PA.

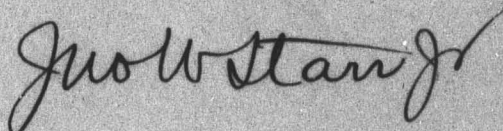

December 17, 1938.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I am in receipt of your interesting letter. Have just gotten home and am extremely busy, and do not expect to be here again until next Saturday. As soon after Christmas as possible I will attend to what you want. You will hear from me as promptly as it is possible to answer.

In the meantime may I not wish you the compliments of the season?

Cordially and sincerely,
