

CHARLES (CHIC) SALE

Boston, Massachusetts,

February 10, 1926.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East Nineteenth St.,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I want you to keep the whole check. Mr. Klaw's contract with you is too complicated and when things are all set with the play we will draw up a new one that we both can understand better.

I haven't used He Knew Lincoln while on tour with this show, but should I be called upon to do so and receive pay for it I will send you 5% of my salary for each performance.

The $100 I sent you this summer was just to hold it until I could place it in the show, and I wanted you to know that I meant business.

I heard the radio performance ~~the~~ last evening broadcasted from New York, and I think the music with it was beautiful. It gave me a different angle than I had ~~ever~~ thought of, which may be of value to me.

I want to thank you for your picture. Mrs. Sale and I value it very highly.

Sincerely,

Chic Sale

2048'K, L 10 52,
RL 1121-20x

Digital Images, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.