Dear Miss Simmons:

I am glad to have these Lincoln verses of yours. They are fine and understanding and it was thoughtful of you to send the clipping from The Sun - I had not seen it. Certainly no man ever was abused with more vituperation than Lincoln. But along with it went tributes and a tribute out-weighed even in those times the attacks. It seems to be the way of men and their affairs.

With all good wishes, believe me

Very sincerely yours
