Miss Ida Tarbell,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell,

You will recollect that sometime ago in doing some genealogical work in my own family I found that my ancestors, Robert and Elizabeth Scarborough and their nephews named Stephamus, Absalom, John and James Haworth had all settled on Smith's Creek near its junction with the Daniel James branch now known as the War Branch near the Endless Caverns south of New Market, Virginia in Rockingham County in 1738 near the John Lincoln settlement on Linvill Creek in the same county. From there the two families spread west into Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, etc. and apparently kept in close proximity to each other.

Lindley Murray Haworth of Clackamas, Oregon advises me that Ira Haworth was the campaign manager for Abraham Lincoln when he ran for president and that Ira Haworth wrote a biography of Abraham Lincoln, a copy of which, he, Lindley Murray Haworth, has in his possession. I never heard of his biography and I thought perhaps it might be an obscure publication which had not been called to your attention.

It may interest you to know that President Hoover is descended from the same Haworth- Scarborough family.

If you have not seen Ira Haworth's biography, you might possibly find some facts which you have not otherwise ascertained.

Very truly yours,

Henry W. Scarborough
