

R "Sons of Liberty" in Illinois, 1864.

(Statement of ex-Gov. Oglesby, of Illinois, to J. McCan Davis, Oct. 27, 1898.)

The "Sons of Liberty" were very active in the campaign of 1864. I knew very little about them; they were so contemptible that I wanted to <sup>know</sup> as little as possible about them. They were not brave men; they were pretty easily scared.
