1931-02-19

Manuscript: In Mr. Lincoln's Town

Tarbell, Ida M.

http://hdl.handle.net/10456/33880

©Allegheny College. All rights reserved.

All materials in the Allegheny College DSpace Repository are subject to college policies and Title 17 of the U.S. Code.
you see Mr. I had a bidadeffect on Little Dorrit from the start.
June 12 April 03 and while clear Sunday am we were left.
away from West Jilk-mislay for 6 yrs. left in court.

in 1949 named -terest -2 insiders in letter to me every early about how the island fit itself one hundred splendid Mere.
in water or in air go in eel slavery with the century.
My own feeling from him to in selling he was 2 would have come out at first - it 40 my he said - simply exaggerated but he would - when meet a change

the acket on that's sure
He read my mind and said it in German at first. Then, to his Horse, I told them all how much I didn't like them. He then told his madder a madder these days, but he cried out, 'If I was L. I could do it. I'm sure I can do it, but I can't do it now. I can't do it. I can't do it.' He was just like a horse in our mind about it. He said we were slaves forever, I guess. He didn't know in the first wanderin' but now he's learning it was real. What must we drink? What must we do? What must we do?
Tell me the truth in and D. hopes so they'd be there within a few days.
Well I came out that speech knowing I'd put it right—got it down where everyone could see it wasn't going to be a page out of my book. Made me cold chill chills. Made me cold.

The thing wasn't right. If I'm L. well I that really my lay down laid lain by myself. Must made me understand why laws laid down got there every time. I'll remember seeing it. Why you two a physical man—because two weeks so lured dua
This page contains a handwritten text that is not legible. It appears to be a letter or a note with various sentences and words. Due to the handwriting, it's challenging to transcribe accurately. The content seems to be a personal communication, possibly discussing personal matters or events.