

Ls Stuvia Psychology

Ludwig speaks of Lincoln's flow of comic anecdotes as a sort of unconscious spiritual hygiene. He says that he actually carried about with him in his back pocket a manuscript book filled with such stories as another might carry about a spirit flask or a bottle of smelling salts. Don't know his authority for this.