While the campaign was at its height - in July the Post full extent of the disunion movement in the So was revealed, the "plot to make up the Union" as it was passimably - but incidentally named since a plot simpler secrecy*. It was a southern paper the Allegheny Confederacy which published the details of what news well-known to our wise of Va in 1856 had called upon the governments of 10 southern states to meet & consult what should be done if the danger to the slaveholding states increased - i.e. if the Union were seceded. At the same time it published a description of the "League of the So." whose motto was to be "a southern republic on any safety" -
formed in 1856
