

Digital Image, 2011. The Ida M. Label Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.

When they was handling the circuit the way he was made no difference between lawyer & ordinary people.
I heard of Jay our attorney in law about thirty or four at a big table up in Blomington. He ? Horse lat, one day. They always put the lawyer of the judge by the up to me end of the transcript and such at the start & Mr. L. he used to like to sit with the person sometimes sip and he got himself tired of hearing discussion law all the time. This time Judge Davis also always would L. right under the nose call out - "Come up here Mr. L. Here where you belong" and Mr. L. he says "Hanna Hanna like but anything better to eat up the judge & my wife the - he'd & judge he was mad as a wet hen. I said "Mr. L. you're ^{not} supposed to be drinking of the bar" I said a woman man but I say damn man I heard that damn the copy of the paper & paper min'on