Bowling Green's Center Table.

In 1836, Miss Mary Owens, of Greene County, Ky., visiting a young lady of unless great culture, was at New Salem visiting her sister, Mrs. Bennett Able. Lincoln had met her during a former visit, in 1833, and now manifested some evidence of having fallen in love with her. As the affair terminated, it proved little more than an interesting flirtation. Mary Owens and Lincoln frequently met at Bowling Green's house, and it is said spent many an evening playing cards at this little table. The table is now in the possession of Mrs. Bowling Green's son, W. C. Green, of Tallula, Ill.
