Manuscript page: Life of Abraham Lincoln, Chapter XXVII, Lincoln and the Soldiers. page 6, He knew something about soldiers

Tarbell, Ida M.

http://hdl.handle.net/10456/34033

©Allegheny College. All rights reserved.

All materials in the Allegheny College DSpace Repository are subject to college policies and Title 17 of the U.S. Code.
I put mine out whilst beard the only became the numb burning until real serenity. "Now in some of the filter hide.

I believe the urine man must a been really had out him sometime.

Head neither what he lead to see a train from the house. From about my camp the covered almost was in the field.

In place 2 ambulance near 2 prince. He talked a lot to me about that time. We talked twice down in Kentucky till it seemed as if it been here myself.

Said he could do well in three ways with order be careful self night for talking of the sufferers. That night he walked millions around that the hospital could see him the soldiers. From he talked a lot away.