

(Note to accompany picture of Nancy Cameron Prewitt)

Nancy Cameron Prewitt,
A Sister of Ann Rutledge.

From a recent photograph. Nancy Cameron Rutledge was a younger sister of Ann Rutledge, being born Feb. 10, 1821. She was, therefore, fourteen years old at the time of Ann's death. She has a clear recollection of Lincoln; that he boarded at her father's house in New Salem, and that after the family moved to the country ~~xxxxxxx~~ "he often came out to see Anna." She also remembers their engagement to be married after Ann should finish her course in school. This sister became Mrs. Prewitt and now lives at Fairfield, Iowa. There is also another sister living, Mrs. Sarah F. Sanders, who resides in ~~California~~ California; and a brother, William B. Rutledge, of Glasgow, Cloud County, Kansas.